Facilities for students with special needs	CEDAT Foundation Facilities for disabled people in the UPV: CEDAT Foundation has created facilities and advises for the use of disabled people that study or work here so that they can move around as easily as possible. Furthermore, it gives rise to all kind of actions to ease the social and labour integration of disabled people from the Valencian Community.
Welcome event / orientation week	The Office of International Exchange Programs (OPII) organises every term, an Orientation Session for incomings students. During these sessions, we try to introduce the students to the university community and provide information about facilities and services offered within the UPV, such as sport facilities, library, cultural activities, Spanish language courses, etc., as well as general information about the city of Valencia. These Orientation Sessions will take place one week after the start of the term.
Language Course(s)	An intensive free Spanish course is offered to all EMA2 Students one month before the classes begin. A free Spanish course (different levels) is offered to EMA2 Students during the year. Also the language centre (http://www.upv.es/entidades/ACDL/indexi.html) offers general language courses, specialised courses and preparation courses for official exams (English, French, German, Italian, Spanish, Japanese, Chinese).
